PROF. BURGESS AND MISS MILLION GRAND CENTRAL DANCE PALACE

DOROTHY KELLY AS PERDITA IN "MY LOST ONE." VITAGRAPH THEATRE

"MY LOST ONE" FEATURE PICTURE AT VITAGRAPH.

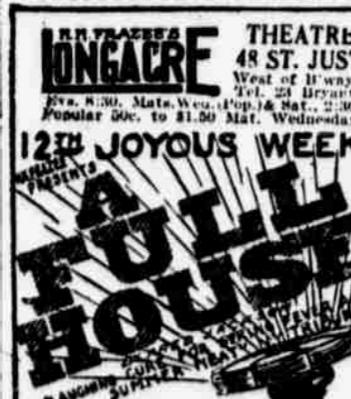

"My Lost One," a human interest picture, will be the chief feature of the Vitagraph programme for the week beginning to-morrow. The story deals with a man whose wife deserted him, with a desire of becoming a great singer. While she is away he writes an opera, which, when finished, is stolen. Circumstances compel him to take a waiter's job, where he stirs up the orchestra, playing his stolen opera. Learning who is producing it, he goes with his little daughter to the opera house. He hears the opera and finds his wife playing the leading role. While singing she sees them both, and in the brilliancy of her career comes from the stage to him in her arms. In the cast are Mr. Dunaway, Dorothy Kelly and William Dunn. Other pictures will be chapter No. 12 of "The Goddess"; Edwin Robbins, Jay Drivings and Bobby Connelly in "Old Good for Nothing"; Harry Davenport and Rose Tapley in "Mr. Jarr and the Visiting Fireman," and two comedies, "A Keyboard Strategy" and "The Quarrel."

"DIAMOND FROM THE SKY" IS THRILLING.

The man in the mask is the title with which Roy L. McCarell has christened chapter thirteen of "The Diamond From the Sky," the wonderful continued photoplay in chapters, with which author McCarell captured the great $10,000 prize. Chapter thirteen, "The Man in the Mask," will be shown in hundreds of New York theatres, including the new houses, beginning next Monday. There are action aplenty in this chapter, while the tentacles of plots stretch out from Richmond to the
